THE RED MASS-1956

THE SEVENTY-NINTH Annual Meeting of the American Bar Association was held in Dallas, Texas from August 27 to August 31. On Sunday, August 26, a Red Mass, sponsored by the St. Thomas More Society of the Dallas-Fort Worth Diocese, was celebrated at the Sacred Heart Cathedral for the delegates to the Convention, their families and friends. His Excellency, the Most Reverend Thomas K. Gorman, D.D., D.Sc.H., was the celebrant at the Solemn Pontifical Mass and His Excellency, the Most Reverend Robert J. Dwyer, D.D., Ph.D., Bishop of Reno, preached the sermon.

In his sermon, Bishop Dwyer noted that the challenge to the Catholic lawyer of today is "whether the revolt against law as wisdom, against law as reason is in any sense justified."

You assume, on the basis of all that you have been taught, and of all that you have tested in your own experience, that the law of God is immutable and that the laws of men are intended to be rational. But your casual assumption that these things are so is not enough. You live in a world and you work in a society where these things, more and more openly, are called into question and even bluntly denied. There is little to give assurance in the teaching of the philosophy of law as expounded in many of our schools, not much to hope for from those whose attitude toward the profession is chiefly distinguished by the hope of speedy financial reward. What is needed is a genuine apostolate for the Christian concept of law as reason and as wisdom.

May I urge you, over and above the conscientious fulfillment of your professional duties, to undertake a serious, thorough-going restudy of the foundations of the law, divine, natural, and human, as the necessary preparation for such an apostolate. Believe me, if you do not undertake it, it will be thrust upon you; there is no escaping it. May I suggest that this is as grave an obligation as is imposed upon you, whether as Christians or as Americans dedicated to the vindication of true liberty, which rests upon those seven pillars which wisdom has hewed out for her house. It is a charge at once patriotic and religious, your reasonable service to your country and your God.
